

8,000 SEAL NOTES NOT SENT BACK

Thousands Fail to Send
Back Seals or Dollar
Drive Head Says

Approximately eight thousand Christmas seal letters are still unreturned, according to Miss Jessie Richardson, supervising nurse of the Tulsa County Public Health Association. The seals are being sold for benefit of the association's tubercular and general health work.

While the seal sale has been conducted this month Miss Richardson and her staff of nurses have not been in their routine of work and clinics and visits have been curtailed. One of the most encouraging signs of progress of the work, the nurses believe, is the coming in to the clinic of children who have been taught to seek medical aid at the following exposure to contagious disease.

"Say It With Seals," written by Dr. J. Sampson of Clinton, Iowa, expresses clearly and truthfully, Miss Richardson said, the ideal of the Christmas seal sale. The poem follows:

"The 'public' sort where things are free,
For the 'poor and needy' we rather
To 'pay' for them than Christians
Care.
But when I think of homes I've seen
In the one and fifty weeks between,
Where stricken children fought for breath,
A loving fight with cruel death,
And then at the close of 'quarantine'
When some was gone and the grave
Was green.

The coming children—only three
Remains of five that used to be.
I wonder if we realize
How truly the seal sale
Is the symbol of the Christmas
Wish we forgot the time between,
Why not use the 'Christmas' title
And find a budget to provide
A service for the time between
In memory of the Christmas
And so instead of fragrant weed,
Or bouquets you might not care to read,
My greeting speaks in seals that mean
A service for the months between.

HOMER RODENBATER, well-known singing member of the Billy Sunday evangelistic party, was a visitor in Tulsa for three days last week, leaving Friday for Winona Lake, Wis., to spend Christmas.

Rodenbater came to Tulsa to give the Sunday school lesson in November and December of last year. He is now on his way to the next campaign January 7 at Knoxville, Tenn. Rodenbater said that he did not know of any arrangements to conduct a revival in Muskogee, as has been announced.

WHILE THE MIDNIGHT mass at the Holy Family Catholic church is being held Sunday night throughout the city, the Tulsa Radio company, a new business branch of the same church, will be out on the air, with the first broadcast at 11:30 p. m. The broadcast will be a Christmas special, with the theme of the season.

A THOUSAND children visited the Christmas-Masque, Christmas evening at the Tulsa Radio company, and were away with candles and fruits. Through the day the children streamed into the company, and by 11:30 p. m. the first broadcast was on the air. The broadcast was a Christmas special, with the theme of the season.

GENERAL DELIVERY windows at the postoffice will be open from 8 a. m. until noon Sunday morning, according to an announcement made last week by the Tulsa Radio company.

DELIVERY of letters and first class mail will be made Sunday morning in the residential section of the city. Regular delivery of all mail will start again Sunday morning.

DEMISEAL OF 12,000 Jammes suit brought against A. P. Washburn, building contractor, by Dan Hunt, for alleged delay in erecting the Hunt department store, was ordered yesterday by District Judge Albert C. Hunt at the request of Dan Hunt. The demiseal was made without prejudice.

HORACE H. HAYN, Tulsa attorney and member of the state veterans hospital commission, died Saturday of pneumonia after a long illness.

JAMES L. HAYN, accused auto thief, who was brought back in Tulsa from Atlanta, Ga., two weeks ago after a four-month absence from the county jail, entered a plea of not guilty yesterday when arraigned before Justice J. T. Thompson and was placed under a 1922 band pending his preliminary hearing, which was set for December 24. He is charged with the theft of a car from Clark Whitehead, local realtor, mysteriously disappeared from the county jail in July. He was arraigned a month ago in Georgia and returned two weeks ago by a deputy sheriff.

FRANK SHARP and Sam Morris charged with robbing H. L. Stale of a watch and $15 in money at the point of revolver the night of November 13, are charged with not guilty at their arraignment and were ordered to jail in default of $10,000 bonds, each, pending preliminary trial which was set for December 24, before Justice J. T. Thompson.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF American Yawcoos are arranging a Christmas entertainment and dance for Monday night, December 25, at 10 p. m. at the Tulsa Radio company. An appropriate program around a Christmas tree will include dancing, singing and other festive features. All Yawcoos and their families are invited.

REV. J. P. CARTER of Breckenham, Texas, presiding elder of the Breckenham district of the Methodist church, and father of J. P. Carter Jr. of this city, will deliver the morning address at Century Methodist church Sunday.

JUN DAWSON, alias Ray McDonald, was sentenced to 18 days in the county jail on a state indictment charging him with larceny for stealing a Ford Model A car from the Tulsa Radio company. He is held by Tulsa police and is to be arraigned Friday night by Motorcycle Patrolman Busby.

Santa Claus Brings Them a Gift but Not Down Chimney.
Good old St. Nicholas had one gift for the Tulsa boys home that he could not possibly hope to bring down a chimney or invelve into a stocking on Christmas eve, so in desperation he engaged strong-arm experts—that is, a truck driver and assistants—to ease the mammoth present into the house Saturday night. It turned out to be a shining new piano, purchased by a number of local women's clubs.

Mrs. C. E. Kuchner headed a special Hyvodka club committee which made the first contribution towards the piano and interested other clubs. The donors were the Hyvodka club, Amber Rotary Annex, Tulsa Federation of Women's Clubs, Oklahoma Federation of Women's Clubs, Associated Music Clubs, Cadman club, Delphian club, Athens, Harmony, Cherokee and Magic City, P. E. O. chapters N. A. K. and E. A. W. Wednesday Morning Musicians, Tuesday Rock club, Jay J. Prothro, Piano Study club, Crown Seal Chautauqua, History and Literature club, Tulsa Woman's club, Eumenic club, Civic Rights Study club, Woman's Civic League.

The boys home is a real home to 52 youngsters.

Empty Stocking Fund Brings Yule Cheer to 275 Families

Multiply Christmas cheer by 275 and you will have a faint idea of the quantity of Christmas cheer following in the wake of the cars and trucks which took to the doorsteps of humble homes Saturday generous baskets of provisions purchased by The World Empty Stocking fund.

There were 19 children each in three families who were assured in this manner an honest-to-goodness Christmas dinner. The amount of food and the number of toys was accurately apportioned to the size of the family, so overflowing baskets brimmed together with the little widow and two babies. Nimble fingers of Oak Girl Scout troop members fashioned the red and blue candy bags so appealing to hungry children and Boy Scouts were on duty in distribution service.

A large beef roast, quarter sack flour, four pounds of sugar, a peck of potatoes, a peck of apples, three pounds of navy beans, two pounds of lard, two and one-half pounds of bacon, a pound of coffee, a pound of butter, a quart of cranberries, a large loaf of bread, a can of corn, a can of tomatoes, a can of peas, a bunch of celery, a package of Crisco, oranges, eating apples, nuts, candies and toys for every child.
